Resolution:

Attachment 1

China Ecotek Corporation 2023 Business Report

I. Operational policy

The main axis of our company's business strategy is to develop a growth strategy that focuses on the four pillars of "Engineering Field," "Operation and Maintenance," "Circular Economy" and "Sales Business", and is supplemented by the following operating policies to promote:

- (1) Strengthen core technology management and development;
- (2) Develop digital transformation and improve management efficiency;
- (3) Promote the integration of refractory engineering materials;
- (4) Develop circular economy engineering business.

II. Implementation status of operational policy

- 1. We will continue to implement the existing environmental protection electromechanical turnkey projects and maintenance operations, and fully cooperate with the environmental protection equipment obsolescence, renewal and improvement projects planned by the group company; projects outside the group include the Polyplastics Taiwan Co. TLP-1(LCP) Plant Project and Caotun Water Purification Plant New Construction Project, Yushi Expo Nangang Biotechnology Park Laboratory Construction Project, etc.. With the joint efforts of all colleagues, the consolidated revenue in 2023 reached 9.759 billion NTD which was a record high in the past five years.
- 2. Introduce a resource management system, continue to improve core technologies and increase the proportion of independent project design. At the same time, develop smart projects and establish a smart inspection system to enhance project management capabilities; comprehensively strengthen the operational decision support system to effectively improve management efficiency.
- 3. Expand the contract for various furnace body renewal and maintenance projects of China Steel Co. and Dragon Steel Co., cultivate refractory construction teams, establish its own refractory technology, build its own factories, and continue to improve the refractory engineering value chain.
- 4. Continue to promote circular economy business, such as recycled water system engineering, steel co-production, flue gas carbon capture engineering, etc.; improve desulfurization, denitrification and dust collection technology to help customers improve air pollution; expand energy storage combined with microcomputer system engineering and solar system settings Engineering; and also actively promotes sales business, such as industrial LED lamps, activated carbon adsorbents, air purification equipment, water treatment chemicals and other products to assist customers in achieving energy conservation, carbon reduction and carbon neutrality goals.

III. Business Outcome

The company's target market is positioned in diversified engineering fields such as environmental protection engineering, electromechanical engineering, biotechnology plant construction engineering, electromechanical maintenance and resource recovery plants, and advanced water purification plant agency operation. The main construction projects in 2023 are as follows:

- 1. Environmental protection projects: Solar power equipment construction project of China Steel Group, turnkey project of No. 3 sinter plant dust collector of China Steel, expansion construction project of power plant TG-9/TG-10 of China Steel, flue gas carbon dioxide capture pilot project for No. 3 blast furnace of China Steel, Futian water recycling plant construction, and Caotun water treatment plant construction project, totaled NT$1.702 billion, accounting for 17.44% of total revenue.
- 2. Electrical and mechanical engineering projects: Preliminary construction and oven construction for the replacement of China Steel's Phase I and II coke oven, construction of China Steel's new Phase I and II coal production equipment, construction of the coke dry quenching (CDQ) furnace of China Steel, construction of China Steel's new coke transmission and processing system, transportation process of China Steel's new coal mine closed structure, expansion of the main substation of China Steel Chemical Corporation's production plant, and liquid crystal polymer plant construction project of Polyplastics Taiwan Co., Ltd., totaled NT$4.908 billion, accounting for 50.29% of overall revenue.

3. Operation and electrical/mechanical maintenance and others: Electrical/mechanical maintenance projects of CSC and Dragon Steel Co., as well as the operation of Chengcing Lake and Kinmen Taihu water treatment plants totaled NT$ 3.149 billion, accounting for 32.27% of overall revenue.

IV. Profit comparison with last year

Unit: In Thousand NTD

- 1. Operating revenues in 2023 increased by NT$915,273 thousand compared to 2022, operating costs are recognized proportionally to the percentage of projects that are completed, and efforts to control construction budget and reduce costs resulted in an increase of NT$132,323 thousand in operating profit compared to 2022.
- 2. Non-operating income and expenses in 2023 decreased by NT$58,365 thousand compared to 2022. The decrease was mainly due to an decrease of NT$97,689 thousand Interest in financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, and the increase in interest was NT$32,056 thousand.
- 3. In summary, net income before tax in 2023 increased by NT$73,958 thousand compared to 2022, and annual consolidated net income increased by NT$36,373 thousand compared to 2022.

V. Research and Development Status

With regard to R&D in wastewater treatment in 2023, we collaborated with the R&D department of China Steel in developing treatment processes for ammonia nitrogen discharge control and developed the fluidized bed biofilm wastewater biological treatment system process to reduce the ammonia nitrogen concentration in industrial wastewater. We have started commercial operations in the plant at the end of 2023 and the results have been good. We also collaborated with the R&D Department of China Steel in developing a high-alkali cleaning agent that can be used to remove oil from the sand filter tank of the cold rolling wastewater plant. The actual operations by China Steel and Dragon Steel after showed significant results and it effectively solves the problem of reduced filtration caused by the presence of high-viscosity rolling oil on the sand surface of the sand filter.

In view of the global commitment to the goal of net-zero emissions by 2050, the Company worked with the R&D Department of China Steel in the establishment of the first stack exhaust carbon dioxide capture pilot plant, which captures and purifies the carbon dioxide originally released into the atmosphere. The pilot production line has been designed and construction has begun. Trial operations are expected to begin at the end of 2024. It is expected to capture 500 tons of carbon dioxide per year with a purity above 99%. The carbon dioxide can be used for production processes in CSC plants and sold on the market as industrial gas.

As for air pollution prevention technology, as air pollution prevention regulations become more rigorous, the Company has developed technology for removing SOx emissions from fixed pollution sources. In addition to the continuous development of wet desulfurization technologies, we will work with the R&D units of China Steel to develop the honeycomb wet scrubber, which significantly reduces SO3 emissions in the sinter plant. The existing panels of the composite honeycomb panel tower and the flue gas desulfurization system are designed for alternating operations. We will provide more diverse process design services in the future. In terms of treating NOx emissions from fixed pollution sources, we will develop and evaluate selective catalyst reduction denitrification systems for the new coke ovens of China Steel. We will also select the most suitable emission reduction solution and SCR ammonia injection system to create ammonia pyrolysis technologies for increasing the viability of use in different settings.

Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors and Shareholders China Ecotek Corporation

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of China Ecotek Corporation (The "Company") and its subsidiaries, which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the notes to the the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), IFRIC Interpretations (IFRIC), and SIC Interpretations (SIC) endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accoundants and auditing standards generally accepted in Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company and its subsidiaries in accordance with The Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accoundant of the Republic of China and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters of the Company and its subsidiaries' consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 are stated as follows:

Assessment of the estimated total project cost

The Company and its subsidiaries have signed many construction contracts, and recognized construction revenues according to the percentage completion method during the contract period. Construction progress is calculated based on the actual construction costs incurred under each contract as a percentage of the estimated total construction cost of the project. The estimated total project cost involves a major accounting estimate, and affects the recognition of construction progress and revenues. Hence, the assessment of estimated total project cost is listed as a key audit matter. For relevant accounting policies, major accounting estimates, and explanations of determination, please refer to the Consolidated Financial Statements Note 4 and Note 5.

Our audit procedures performed included the following:

- Understand control procedures for the assessment of the estimated total project cost, and conduct sampling inspections of the consistency between preparation process and internal controls.
- Conduct a sampling inspection of documentation related to the assessment of the estimated total project cost for new projects and additions/reductions in the current year.
- 3. Conduct a sampling inspection to see if there are any major abnormalities between the actual total cost of projects concluded this year and their estimated total project cost, in order to verify the reasonableness of estimated total project cost. Conduct a sampling inspection of abnormal changes in estimated total cost, in order to determine the reasonableness of calculating the percentage of construction progress based on the estimated total project cost before the balance sheet date.

Other Matter

We have also audited the standalone financial statements of the Company as of and for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 on which we have issued an unqualified opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issures and the IFRS, IAS, IFRIC, and SIC endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company and its subsidiaries or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

These charged with governance, including the audit committee or supervisors, are responsible for overseeing the Company and its subsidiaries' financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatement can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- 1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omission, misrepresentation, or the override of internal control.
- 2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company and its subsidiaries' internal control.
- 3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accouting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company and its subsidiaries' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company and its subsidiaries to cease to continue as a going concern.
- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the discloseures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

6. Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of entities or business activities within the Company and its subsidiaries to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audits resulting in this independent auditors' report are Lee-Yuan Kuo and Chao-Chun Wang.

Independent Auditors' Report

We have audited the accompanying standalone financial statements of China Ecotek Corporation (The "Company"), which comprise the standalone balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the standalone statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the notes to the the standalone financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying standalone financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the standalone financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and its standalone financial performance and its standalone cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accoundants and auditing standards generally accepted in Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with The Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accoundant of the Republic of China and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters of the Company's standalone financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 are stated as follows:

Assessment of the estimated total project cost

The Company has signed many construction contracts, and recognized construction revenues according to the percentage completion method. Construction progress is calculated based on the actual construction costs incurred under each contract as a percentage of the estimated total construction cost of the project. The estimated total project cost involves a major accounting estimate, and affects the recognition of construction progress and revenues. Hence, the assessment of estimated total project cost is listed as a key audit matter. For relevant accounting policies, major accounting estimates, and explanations of determination, please refer to the Standalone Financial Statements Note 4 and Note 5.

Our audit procedures performed included the following:

- Understand control procedures for the assessment of the estimated total project cost, and conduct sampling inspections of the consistency between preparation process and internal controls.
- 2. Conduct a sampling inspection of documentation related to the assessment of the estimated total project cost for new projects and additions/reductions in the current year.
- 3. Conduct a sampling inspection to see if there are any major abnormalities between the actual total cost of projects concluded this year and their estimated total project cost, in order to verify the reasonableness of estimated total project cost. Conduct a sampling inspection of abnormal changes in estimated total cost, in order to determine the reasonableness of calculating the percentage of construction progress based on the estimated total project cost before the balance sheet date.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the standalone financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issures, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of standalone financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

These charged with governance, including the audit committee or supervisors, are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatement can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omission, misrepresentation, or the override of internal control.

- 2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- 3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accouting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the discloseures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- 6. Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the standalone financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audits resulting in this independent auditors' report are Lee-Yuan Kuo and Chao-Chun Wang.

Proposal 2: Adoption of the proposal for distribution of 2023 profits.

Proposed by Board of Directors

Explanatory Note:

For the 2023 earnings distribution, the distribution is planned to be handled according to Article 32-1 of the Articles of Incorporation, and shareholders' cash bonus of NT$ 408,350,422 is to be distributed, and the cash bonus of NT$ 3.3 per share is to be distributed. Please refer to Attachment 2 for details.

Cash bonus and dividends distribution base date is to be authorized to the Chairman for determination. During the issuance of cash bonus, the distribution ratio is calculated to the integer dollar and the decimal value is truncated and for the total of the odd amount less than one dollar, the decimal numbers are adjusted from large to small and the account number from first to last sequentially until it satisfies the total amount of the cash dividend distribution

III. Extraordinary Motions

Three. Regulations and Rules

Regulations and Rules 1

China Ecotek Corporation Rules of Procedures for Shareholders Meetings

Article 1

The rules of procedures for shareholders meeting of the Company, except as otherwise provided by law, regulation or the articles of incorporation, shall be as provided in these Rules.

Article 2

Unless otherwise provided by law or regulation, the Company's shareholders meetings shall be convened by the board of directors.

The Company shall prepare electronic versions of the shareholders meeting notice and proxy forms, and the origins of and explanatory materials relating to all proposals, including proposals for ratification, matters for deliberation, or the election or dismissal of directors and upload them to the Market Observation Post System (MOPS) before 30 days before the date of an Annual Meeting of Shareholders or before 15 days before the date of a special shareholders meeting. The Company shall prepare electronic versions of the shareholders meeting agenda and supplemental meeting materials and upload them to the MOPS before 21 days before the date of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders or before 15 days before the date of the special shareholders meeting.

In addition, 15 days prior to the date of the shareholders meeting, the Company shall also have prepared the shareholders meeting agenda and supplemental meeting materials and made them available for review by shareholders at any time. The meeting agenda and supplemental materials shall also be displayed at the Company and the professional shareholder services agent designated thereby as well as being distributed on-site at the meeting place.

The notice and announcement shall describe the reason of convention. Where the consent of the counterparty of the notice is obtained, an electronic method may be adopted.

Matters to be listed in the convening cause include election or dismissal of directors, changes in the Articles of Association, reduction of capital, application for cessation of public offering, directors' permission to compete for business, conversion of surplus to capital increase, and conversion of public reserve to capital increase, company dissolution, mergers, or segmentation, or matters related to the issuer's handling and collection of securities under Article 185, paragraph 1 of the Company Act, Article 26-1 of the Securities Exchange Act, Article 43-6 of the Securities and Exchange Act, and Issues 56-1 and 60-2 of the Issuer's Guidelines for Dealing with and Offering Securities. Its main content should be listed and explained in the reason for convening. There shall be not by extraordinary motion. Where re-election of all Directors as well as their inauguration date is stated in the notice of the reasons for convening the Shareholders' Meeting, such inauguration date shall not be altered by any extraordinary motion or otherwise in the said meeting after the completion of the re-election in the same meeting. A shareholder holding 1 percent or more of the total number of issued shares may submit to the Company a written proposal for discussion at a Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Such proposals, however, are limited to one item only, and no proposal containing more than one item will be included in the meeting agenda. In addition, when the circumstances of any Sub-paragraph of Paragraph 4 of Article 172-1 of the Company Act apply to a proposal put forward by a shareholder, the board of directors may exclude it from the agenda. Shareholders may put forward proposals to urge the company to promote public interests or fulfill its social responsibilities. The procedure shall be limited to one item in accordance with the relevant provisions of Article 172-1 of the Company Law. Any proposal with more than one item shall not be included in the proposal.

The company shall announce the acceptance of the shareholders proposals, written or electronic acceptance method, acceptance premises and acceptance period before the shareholders 'closing date before the shareholders' general meeting is held. The period of acceptance shall not be less than ten days.

The number of words of a proposal to be submitted by a shareholder shall be limited to not more than three hundred (300) words, and any proposal containing more than 300 words shall not be included in the agenda of the shareholders' meeting. The shareholder who has submitted a proposal shall attend, in person or by a proxy, the regular shareholders' meeting whereat his proposal is to be discussed and shall take part in the discussion of such proposal.

The company shall, before the notice date of the shareholders' meeting, notify the proposal shareholders of the processing result, and list the motions stipulated in this article in the meeting notice. For shareholder proposals not included in the proposal, the board of directors shall explain the reasons for the non-listing at the shareholders' meeting.

Article 3

For each shareholders' meeting, a shareholder may appoint a proxy to attend the meeting by providing the proxy form issued by the Company and stating the scope of the proxy's authorization.

A shareholder may issue only one proxy form and appoint only one proxy for any given shareholders meeting, and shall deliver the proxy form to the Company before 5 days before the date of the shareholders meeting. When duplicate proxy forms are delivered, the one received earliest shall prevail; unless a declaration is made to cancel the previous proxy appointment.

After a proxy form has been delivered to the Company, if the shareholder intends to attend the meeting in person or to exercise voting rights by correspondence or electronically, a written notice of proxy cancellation shall be submitted to the Company before 2 business days before the meeting date. If the cancellation notice is submitted after that time, votes cast at the meeting by the proxy shall prevail.

Article 4

The venue for a shareholders' meeting shall be the premises of the Company, or a place easily accessible to shareholders and suitable for a shareholders meeting. The meeting may begin no earlier than 9 a.m. and no later than 3 p.m.

Article 5

The Company shall specify in its shareholders' meeting notices the time during which shareholder attendance registrations will be accepted, the place to register for attendance and other matters for attention.

The time during which shareholder attendance registrations will be accepted, as stated in the preceding paragraph, shall be at least 30 minutes prior to the time the meeting commences. The place at which attendance registrations are accepted shall be clearly marked and a sufficient number of suitable personnel assigned to handle the registrations.

Shareholders and their proxies (collectively, "shareholders") shall attend shareholders' meetings based on attendance cards, sign-in cards or other certificates of attendance. The Company may not arbitrarily add requirements for other documents beyond those showing eligibility to attend presented by shareholders. Solicitors soliciting proxy forms shall also bring identification documents for verification.

The Company shall furnish attending shareholders with the meeting agenda book, annual report, attendance card, speaker's slips, voting slips, and other meeting materials. Where there is an election of directors, pre-printed ballots shall also be furnished.

When the government or a juristic person is a shareholder, it may be represented by more than one representative at a shareholders meeting. When a juristic person is appointed to attend as proxy, it may designate only one person to represent it in the meeting.

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by the board of directors, the meeting shall be chaired by the Chairman. When the Chairman is on leave or for any reason is unable to exercise the powers of the chairperson, one of the directors shall be appointed to act as chair. Where the Chairman does not make such a designation, the directors shall select from among themselves one person to serve as chair. When a director serves as chair, as referred to in the preceding paragraph, the director shall be one who has held that position for six months or more and who understands the financial and business conditions of the company. The same shall be true for a representative of a juristic person director that serves as chair. It is advisable that shareholders' meetings convened by the board of directors be chaired by the Chairman in person and attended by a majority of the directors in person, and at least one member of each functional committee on behalf of the committee. The attendance shall be recorded in the meeting minutes. If a shareholders meeting is convened by a party with power to convene but other than the board of directors, the convening party shall chair the meeting. When there are two or more such convening parties, they shall mutually select a chair from among themselves.

The Company may appoint its attorneys, certified public accountants, or related persons retained by it to attend a shareholders meeting in a non-voting capacity.

Article 7

The Company, beginning from the time it accepts shareholder attendance registrations, shall make an uninterrupted audio and video recording of the registration procedure, the proceedings of the shareholders meeting, and the voting and vote counting procedures.

The recorded materials of the preceding paragraph shall be retained for at least 1 year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the ballots shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.

Article 8

Attendance at shareholders' meetings shall be calculated based on the number of shares. The number of shares in attendance shall be calculated according to the sign-in cards handed in, and if written or electronic method is adopted for the exercise of voting rights, then it shall be counted plus the number of shares whose voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronically. During the meeting, if the total number of voting rights of shareholders present increases, it should be updated immediately.

The chairman shall call the meeting to order at the appointed meeting time. At the same time, relevant information such as the number of non-voting rights and the number of shares attended will be announced. However, when the attending shareholders do not represent a majority of the total number of issued shares, the chairman may announce a postponement, provided that no more than two such postponements, for a combined total of no more than 1 hour, may be made. If the quorum is not met after two postponements and the attending shareholders still represent less than one third of the total number of issued shares, the chairman shall declare the meeting adjourned.

If the quorum is not met after two postponements as referred to in the preceding paragraph, but the attending shareholders represent one third or more of the total number of issued shares, a tentative resolution may be adopted pursuant to Paragraph 1 of Article 175 of the Company Act; all shareholders shall be notified of the tentative resolution and another shareholders meeting shall be convened within 1 month. However, for special resolutions specified in the Company Act or other laws or articles of incorporation, such restrictions shall not be applied. When, prior to conclusion of the meeting, the attending shareholders represent a majority of the total number of issued shares, the chair may re-submit the tentative resolution for a vote by the shareholders' meeting pursuant to Article 174 of the Company Act.

Article 9

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by the board of directors, the meeting agenda shall be set by the board of directors. Relevant motions (including provisional motions and amendments to original motions) shall be voted on a case-by-case basis. The meeting shall proceed in the order set by the agenda, which may not be changed without a resolution of the shareholders meeting.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to a shareholders meeting convened by a party with the power to convene that is not the board of directors.

The chair may not declare the meeting adjourned prior to completion of deliberation on the meeting agenda of the preceding two paragraphs (including extraordinary motions), except by a resolution of the shareholders meeting. If the chair declares the meeting adjourned in violation of the rules of procedure, the other members of the board of directors shall promptly assist the attending shareholders in electing a new chair in accordance with statutory procedures, by agreement of a majority of the votes represented by the attending shareholders, and then continue the meeting.

After the end of a meeting and after the chair declares the meeting adjourned, shareholders shall not further elect a chair to continue the meeting at the original site or at another place.

The chair shall allow ample opportunity during the meeting for explanation and discussion of proposals and of amendments or extraordinary motions put forward by the shareholders; when the chair is of the opinion that a proposal has been discussed sufficiently to put it to a vote, the chair may announce the discussion closed and call for a vote.

The chairman should be in a position of impartiality and detachment, strictly implement the rules of procedure, and make the meeting proceed smoothly. The shareholders present are obliged to abide by the rules of procedure, speak politely and maintain order in the conference room.

Article 10

Before speaking, an attending shareholder must specify on a speaker's slip the subject of the speech, his/her shareholder account number and shareholders' name or account name. The order in which shareholders speak will be set by the chair. A shareholder in attendance who has submitted a speaker's slip but does not actually speak shall be deemed to have not spoken. When the content of the speech does not correspond to the subject given on the speaker's slip, the spoken content shall prevail.

Except with the consent of the chair, a shareholder may not speak more than twice on the same proposal, and a single speech may not exceed 5 minutes. If the shareholder's speech violates the rules or exceeds the scope of the agenda item, the chair may terminate the speech.

When an attending shareholder is speaking, other shareholders may not speak or interrupt unless they have sought and obtained the consent of the chair and the shareholder that has the floor; the chairperson shall stop any violation.

When a juristic person shareholder appoints two or more representatives to attend a shareholders meeting, only one of the representatives so appointed may speak on the same proposal.

After an attending shareholder has spoken, the chair may respond in person or direct relevant personnel to respond.

5. Voting at a shareholders' meeting shall be calculated based the number of shares. With respect to resolutions of shareholders' meetings, the number of shares held by a shareholder with no voting rights shall not be calculated as part of the total number of issued shares.

When a shareholder is an interested party in relation to an agenda item, and there is the likelihood that such a relationship would prejudice the interests of the Company, that shareholder may not vote on that item, and may not exercise voting rights as proxy for any other shareholder.

The number of shares for which voting rights may not be exercised under the preceding paragraph shall not be calculated as part of the voting rights represented by attending shareholders.

With the exception of a trust enterprise or a shareholder services agent approved by the competent securities authority, when one person is concurrently appointed as proxy by two or more shareholders, the voting rights represented by that proxy may not exceed 3 percent of the voting rights represented by the total number of issued shares. If exceeded, the voting rights exceeded will not be counted, but it shall still be included in the total number of shares present.

Article 12

Each company's shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held, except when the shares are restricted shares or are deemed non-voting shares under Article Subparagraph 3 of Article 157 Item 1 and Paragraph 2 of 179 of the Company Act.

When the company holds a shareholders' meeting, it shall use electronic means and may exercise its voting rights in writing. When voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronic means, the method of exercise shall be specified in the shareholders' meeting notice. A shareholder exercising voting rights by correspondence or electronic means will be deemed to have attended the meeting in person, but to have waived his/her rights with respect to the extraordinary motions and amendments to original proposals of that meeting; it is therefore advisable that the Company avoid the submission of extraordinary motions and amendments to original proposals.

A shareholder intending to exercise voting rights by correspondence or electronic means under the preceding paragraph shall deliver a written declaration of intent to the Company before 2 days before the date of the shareholders meeting. When duplicate declarations of intent are delivered, the one received earliest shall prevail; except when a declaration is made to cancel the earlier declaration of intent. After a shareholder has exercised voting rights by correspondence or electronic means, in the event the shareholder intends to attend the shareholders' meeting in person, a written declaration of intent to retract the voting rights already exercised under the preceding paragraph shall be made known to the Company, by the same means by which the voting rights were exercised, before 2 business days before the date of the shareholders' meeting. If the notice of retraction is submitted after that time, the voting rights already exercised by correspondence or electronic means shall prevail. When a shareholder has exercised voting rights both by correspondence or electronic means and by appointing a proxy to attend a shareholders' meeting, the voting rights exercised by the proxy in the meeting shall prevail.

Except as otherwise provided in the Company Act and in the Company's Articles of Association, the passage of a proposal shall require an affirmative vote of a majority of the voting rights represented by the attending shareholders. When voting, the chairman or his designated person shall announce the total number of voting rights to attend shareholders on a case-by-case basis. Shareholders vote on a case-by-case basis, and after the shareholders meeting the day, entry shall be made of the results of shareholders' consent, opposition and abstaining into the Market Observation Post System.

When there are amendments or alternatives to the same motion, the chairman and the original motion determine the order of voting; If one of the motion has been passed, other motions are regarded as vetoes and shall not be voted on again.

Before voting, a number of examiners and counting staff shall be appointed by the chairman to perform various related duties. The examiner shall have shareholder status.

Vote counting for shareholders' meeting proposals or elections shall be conducted in public at the place of the shareholders meeting. Immediately after vote counting has been completed, the results of the voting, including the statistical tallies of the numbers of votes, shall be announced on-site at the meeting, and a record made of the vote..

Article 13

When the shareholders have elected directors, they should be handled in accordance with the company's director election method and announce the election results on the spot. It should include the list of elected directors and their number of votes and the list of unsuccessful directors and the number of voting rights they have obtained.

Votes for the election matters in the preceding paragraph shall be sealed and signed by the examiners, stored properly and kept for at least one year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the ballots shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.

Article 14

Matters relating to the resolutions of a shareholders meeting shall be recorded in the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes shall be signed or sealed by the chair of the meeting and a copy distributed to each shareholder within 20 days after the conclusion of the meeting. The meeting minutes may be produced and distributed in electronic form.

The Company may distribute the meeting minutes of the preceding paragraph by means of a public announcement made through the Market Observation Post System (MOPS).

Proceedings shall be recorded according to year, month, day, venue, name of the chairman, resolution method, method of proceeding and voting results (including number of voting rights). In the event of an election of directors, the proceedings shall disclose the number of voting rights won by each candidate. During the existence of the company, it should be kept permanently and fully disclosed on the company's website.

Article 15

On the day of a shareholders' meeting, the Company shall compile in the prescribed format a statistical statement of the number of shares obtained by solicitors through solicitation and the number of shares represented by proxies, and shall make an express disclosure of the same at the place of the shareholders meeting. If matters put to a resolution at a shareholders meeting constitute material information under applicable laws or regulations or under Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation regulations, the Company shall upload the content of such resolution to the MOPS within the prescribed time period.

Article 16

Staff handling administrative affairs of a shareholders' meeting shall wear identification cards or arm bands.

The chair may direct the proctors or security personnel to help maintain order at the meeting place. When proctors or security personnel help maintain order at the meeting place, they shall wear an identification card or armband.

At the place of a shareholders' meeting, if a shareholder attempts to speak through any device other than the public address equipment set up by the Company, the chair may prevent the shareholder from so doing.

When a shareholder violates the rules of procedure and defies the chairperson's correction, obstructing the proceedings and refusing to heed calls to stop, the chairperson may direct the proctors or security personnel to escort the shareholder from the meeting.

Article 17

When a meeting is in progress, the chair may announce a break based on time considerations. If a force majeure event occurs, the chair may rule the meeting temporarily suspended and announce a time when, in view of the circumstances, the meeting will be resumed.

If the meeting venue is no longer available for continued use and not all of the items (including extraordinary motions) on the meeting agenda have been addressed, the shareholders' meeting may adopt a resolution to resume the meeting at another venue.

A resolution may be adopted at a shareholders' meeting to defer or resume the meeting within 5 days in accordance with Article 182 of the Company Act.

Article 18

These Rules shall be implemented upon approval by a Shareholders' Meeting; the same shall apply when amendments are made hereto.

Article 2-1 In the event of business needs, the Company may proceed with endorsement and guarantee matters according to the Regulations for Making Endorsements and Guarantees to the External of the Company.

Article 3 To achieve the objective of business diversification, the Company may re-invest in other companies, and the total investment amount of re-investment made is not limited to t40 percent of the paid-in share capital of the Company described in the Company Act.

Article 4 The Company shall have its head office in Kaohsiung City, R.O.C., and when it is determined to be necessary, branch offices may be established domestically or overseas.

Article 5 The public announcement method of the Company, Unless otherwise stipulated by the competent authority of securities, the Company's announcements will be made on newspapers, e-newpapers, or websites established or designated by the central competent authority.

Chapter 2 Shares

Article 6 The total capital of the Company shall be in the amount of NT$ 2,200,000,000, divided into 220,000,000 shares, at NTD 10 per share, which may be issued at discrete times.

Article 7 Unless the Company does not print physical securities, the printed share certificates shall be numbered and specify matters required by law, affixed with the signature or seal of the director representing the Company, and shall be legally certified by the bank serving as the registrar before issuance.

The Company is exempted from printing physical securities, but must register its shares and comply with regulations of Centralized Securities Depository Enterprises.

Article 8 The printing of the share certificates of the Company is exempted and all of the shares shall be registered shares. The shares shall be indicated with the name of each shareholder. For a government or corporate shareholder, the government or corporate shareholder and the name of its representative as well as the address thereof shall be recorded clearly in the shareholders' roster.

Article 9 The stock affairs of the Company shall be handled according to the Company Act and regulations of the competent authority.

Article 10 Any transfer registration of shares shall be prohibited within 60 days prior to an Annual Meeting of Shareholders, 30 days prior to an extraAnnual Meeting of Shareholders, or 5 days prior to the target date for the distribution of dividends and bonuses or other interests by the Company.

Chapter 3 Shareholders' Meeting

Article 11 Unless otherwise specified by law or Articles of Incorporation, shareholders' meetings are convened by the board of directors.

The Company's shareholders' meetings is divided into the following two types:

- I. The annual general meeting shall be convened by the board of directors according to the law within six months after the end of each fiscal year.
- II. Extraordinary shareholders' meetings shall be convened whenever necessary according to the law.

Article 12 The convention procedures for Annual Meeting of Shareholderss shall be handled according to the regulations of the Company Act, Securities and Exchange Act and relevant laws.

Article 13 Any resolution at a shareholders' meeting, unless otherwise specified in the Company Act, shall be adopted by a majority of the shareholders presented, who represent more than half of the total number of the company's outstanding shares and shall be executed based on the majority of the voting rights of the attending shareholders.

Article 14 A shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held, except where the voting rights are restricted or shareholders are deemed to have no voting rights under Paragraph 2 of Article 179 of the Company Act.

Article 15 Where a shareholder for any reasons cannot attend the shareholders' meeting in person, he or she may appoint a proxy to attend a shareholders' meeting in his/her/its behalf by executing a power of attorney printed by the Company, stamped with a seal of the Company preserved on record, stating therein the scope of power authorized to the proxy. With the exception of a trust enterprise or a shareholder services agent approved by the competent securities authority, when one person is concurrently appointed as proxy by two or more shareholders, the voting rights represented by that proxy may not exceed 3 percent of the voting rights represented by the total number of issued shares, and the part of the voting rights exceeding such percentage shall not be counted.

Article 16 Shareholders' meetings that are convened by the Board of Directors shall be chaired by the chairman. In case where the chairman is on leave or cannot exercise his/her power and authority for any reason, the chairman may appoint a director to act as a proxy thereof; where the chairman fails to appoint a proxy, the directors shall elect one person from among the directors to act as the proxy.

Article 17 Resolutions adopted at a shareholders' meeting shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting, which shall be affixed with the signature or seal of the chair of the meeting. The meeting minutes along with the attendance list bearing the signatures of the attending shareholders and the powers of attorney of the proxies for attending the meeting shall be archived by the board of directors for preservation at the Company. In addition, the meeting minutes shall be distributed to all shareholders within twenty days after the close of the meeting. The preparation and distribution of the meeting minutes may be effected by means of electronic transmission.

Chapter 4 Directors, Audit Committee, and Managerial Officers

Article 18 The Company has nine to fifteen directors—and adopts the candidate nomination system with the term of office of three years. Supervisors with capability shall be elected by the shareholders' meeting according to the regulations of the Company Act, and re-election shall be applicable.
